Cow Pat Game

We are now only 3 weeks away from the closing date for return of ticket stubs and money. Please don't leave it until the last minute to buy your ticket or to return your stubs and money in case you forget.

Thank you to all those who have been selling tickets and encouraging others to take books to sell away from the Church and town.

I have no idea how we are doing because many people have said they have sold tickets but the money is not yet banked!

Harvest Thanksgiving - St Laurence

Harvest Thanksgiving will be kept earlier than usual this year - next Sunday, September 12 - so as to take place at the same time as the Ludlow Food Festival. We shall give thanks in our prayers for all who bring benefit and fame in our town by producing and selling food. We shall be remembering in our prayers and inspecial displays the many in our world who go without food.

All members of the congregation who are willing to do so are invited to bring primarily flowers or plants next Sunday for distribution to the sick and housebound.

Can anyone help with driving those making the distribution? There is a list at the back of church for volunteers to sign up on.
